

The editors would like to thank the Leipzig-based Evangelical Diaspora Association and the Evangelical Church in Central Germany for funding the printing.

Finally, our sincere thanks go to Andrea Strübind for the uncomplicated admission to the KZG.

Erfurt / Leipzig

Michael Haspel / Klaus Fitschen

Supplement to the Introduction

It is a great pleasure for the editorial board that in the year in which Heino Falcke's much acclaimed lecture »Christus befreit – darum Kirche für andere« (»Christ frees – therefore church for others«) celebrates its 50th anniversary, the contributions of a specially conceived conference were edited by the organizers Michael Haspel and Klaus Fitschen and made available for this issue of CCH/KZG. Many thanks!

In addition, another article is published which, due to its peace-ethical reflections on the war in Ukraine, which Marco Hofheinz gains in a discussion with Karl Barth's reactions to the Sudeten crisis, cannot be surpassed in topicality and has the potential to trigger a lively and fruitful discussion.

The issue concludes with two reviews that present and critically reflect on recent contributions to contemporary church history.

Oldenburg i. O.

Andrea Strübind, November 2022